	and Others and order dated 13th October, 2020 in W.P.S.T. 71 of 2020 with CAN 1 of 2020, Papiya Maiti and Others vs. State of West Bengal and others. Mr. S. Ghosh, learned advocate appearing on behalf of the State respondents submits that the matters pending before the High Court are regarding candidates pursuing M.Sc. (Nursing) course, whereas the applicants herein are pursuing Post Basic B.Sc. (Nursing). In reply Mr. Banerjee submits that since the issue is basically same, appropriate interim order, as prayed for, may be passed. Heard learned advocates for the parties. Considering the facts and circumstances of the case, let there be an interim order permitting the original applicants to continue with the Post Basic B.Sc. (Nursing) course including taking part in any examination which may be conducted. However, the result of the examination, so far as the original applicants are concerned, should not be published and such aspects of the matter would be considered when the matter is taken up for hearing. Since it is submitted on behalf of the applicants that the entire procedure is done online and the respondent authorities are not accepting the applications of the applicants online, the respondent authorities are directed to accept the applications of the original applicants in the hard copy format. Let reply be filed by 18th January, 2021. Rejoinder, if any, by 19th February, 2021. Matter to
