Mitra, Departmental Representative. The applicant has prayed for direction upon the respondents for release of all retiral benefits of the applicant and other ancillary reliefs. The applicant retired from service on May 31, 2004. The grievance of the applicant is that he has not received the retiral benefits and as such he had to approach the Tribunal for release of retiral benefits. Mr. B. Mitra, the Departmental Representative of the respondent AG, West Bengal has produced a copy of PPO dated September 23, 2019 and copy of order for release of Gratuity issued on September 23, 2019, wherefrom it appears that the Pension and Gratuity have already been released in favour of the applicant. We granted liberty to the applicant to spell out the specific retirement benefits which have not been released in favour of the applicant till date by filing supplementary application, but the applicant has failed to file any supplementary application till date. We are unable to ascertain from the materials on record whether the amount of GPF, Group Insurance and Leave Encashment, if any, have already been released in favour of the applicant.

Having heard Learned Counsel for the applicant, Learned Counsel for the state respondents and the Departmental Representative of the respondent AG, West Bengal, we are of the view that the applicant is entitled to get the amount of GPF, the amount of Group Insurance and the amount of Leave Encashment admissible to the applicant, if the said amount has not been released in the meantime. We are informed that the applicant has not submitted the applications in prescribed format for release of GPF etc.

Under the above circumstances, we direct the applicant to submit application in the prescribed format for release of the amount of GPF if the applicant has not received the amount of GPF in the meantime, within a period of 4 (four) weeks from this date before the Pension Sanctioning Authority viz., the respondent no. 3, Senior Joint Commissioner, Commercial Taxes (Administration), Central Section, Kolkata – 700 014. The respondent no. 3 is directed to release the amount of GPF, Group Insurance and Leave Encashment admissible to the applicant, within a period of 12 (twelve) weeks from the date of submission of the applications in the prescribed format, if the
