MR. SUBRATA CHANDRA POLLE, LEARNED REGISTRAR

Case No. –MA 85 of 2021 [OA-689 of 2021]

Sankar Chakraborty - VERSUS - THE STATE OF WEST BENGAL & ORS.

Serial No. For the Applicant : Mr. A. Maity, and Advocate.

Date of order For the State Respondent : None.

01

31.01.2022

In the present case, the applicant has filed an application for condonation of delay in filing the original application in respect of his substantive relief. The learned counsel has submitted that the said application for condonation of delay has been served upon the State respondents and the State respondents have received the copy of the application for condonation of delay. In support of his submission, the learned counsel has filed an affidavit of service along with the original postal receipts and proof of delivery downloaded from the website of the India Post. The internet track records show that the application has been received by the addressees / respondents on 03.01.2022, 04.01.2022 and 05.01.2022 respectively.

The affidavit of service filed today be kept with the record.

Despite service of notice, none appears for the State respondents.

It is further pertinent to mention that without the order of the Tribunal, the aforestated notice has been served in advance.

In view of the aforesaid position, the applicant is further directed to serve a notice upon the State respondents along with the order passed today downloaded from the official website of the Tribunal in respect of the next date of the case.

The applicant is also directed to file an affidavit of service on the next date.

As the application has already been served upon the State respondents, no further copy of the application for condonation of delay is required to be served, and for that reason, the applicant is directed to serve a notice only upon the State respondents indicating the next date of the case for their appearance.

If the aforesaid direction is complied with, the State respondents are directed to be present on the next date.

Fix 21.03.2022 for compliance of the order and appearance of the State respondents.
