For the Applicant : Mr. S. Ghosh,
Advocate.

For the State Respondents : Mr. G.P. Banerjee,
Mr. A.K. Das Sinha,
Advocates.

The matter is taken up by the Single Bench pursuant to the order contained in the Notification No. 638-WBAT/2J-15/2016 (Pt. – II) dated 23rd November, 2022 issued in exercise of the powers conferred under Section 5(6) of the Administrative Tribunals Act, 1985.

Submission of Mr. Ghosh, learned counsel on behalf of the applicant is that after the completion of the recruitment process for the post of Homoeopathic Medical Officer, there are still six (06) seats vacant under the UR category. Submission is that since the applicant belongs to the UR category, his name may be recommended for the post of Homoeopathic Medical Officer. Further, the last successful candidate recommended for the post under the UR category had an aggregate score of 82.5. It is the understanding of the applicant that if the respondent authorities are required to fill up these six (06) vacant posts, then he, having an aggregate of 81.5, has a fair chance of being considered.

Having heard the submission of the learned counsels, this application is disposed of by directing the respondent no. 5, the Secretary and Controller of Examinations, West Bengal Health Recruitment Board to consider this application as representation of the applicant and suitable action may be taken if the Board is of the opinion that the applicant has merit and is eligible for being recommended for the post of Homoeopathic Medical Officer within a period of three (03) months from the
