The applicant has filed this application praying for a direction to the respondent authorities to grant compassionate employment under the Land Looser category.

It appears from the application that an application for compassionate employment was enquired by the Block Development Officer (B.D.O), Jhalda-I, Purulia and report submitted on 02.12.1996 in favour of the applicant's father, Naresh Kumar Mahato. On 27.06.1997, a proposal in favour of Naresh Kumar Mahato was submitted by the District Magistrate, Purulia addressed to the Assistant Secretary, Labour Department. It also appears from a Memo. No. 125 –Emp. dated 19.05.1998 issued by the Labour Department and addressed to the District Magistrate, Purulia, that the proposal for employment of Naresh Kumar Mahato, as a Land Looser was approved for appointment under compassionate ground. From the papers, it is clear that the father of the applicant, Naresh Kumar Mahato as a Land Looser was offered an employment. It is not clear whether such employment was accepted by the applicant's father or not. As regards, the proposal for such employment on behalf of the applicant, Subha Jyoti Mahata, except his name appearing along with others in the inquiry report no other paper related to his employment is in the application.

In view of the above, the Tribunal does not find any merit in this application and therefore, this application is disposed of.
