18.04.2022

For the Respondent No.4 : Mrs. Sunita Agarwal, Advocate

In terms of the previous order, the next date was communicated to the applicant by post and article was returned with a remark “insufficient address”. On perusal of the cause title of the record, the address mentioned on the envelope is same and identical with the address furnished by the applicant in the original application.

SCN.

In view of the aforesaid facts, there is no reason to disbelieve that an attempt was made to communicate the next date of the applicant but the same was not possible due to wrong particulars given by the applicant.

Despite repeated calls today, none appears for the applicant. It appears from record that the applicant was absent in the present proceeding on and from 23rd December 2021. Previously, Mr. Gourav Halder, learned counsel had appeared for the applicant. However, Mr. Halder submitted that he has no instruction to represent the applicant in the present case.

In view of the long absence of the applicant, the case record be placed before the Hon’ble First Single Bench for appropriate order.

Accordingly, the office is directed to enlist the matter in the daily cause list on 22nd April, 2022 under the heading “For Order”.
