18.04.2022

For the State Respondent : Mr. S.N. Roy,
Learned Advocates.

It appears from the record that the father of the applicant was a Livestock Assistant under the Directorate of Animal Resources Development Deptt. who died in harness on 25.09.2015. At the time of his death, the applicant was 22 years of old. With N.O.C. from all the siblings, he applied to the Dy. Director for compassionate appointment within time frame. From the record it also appears that Dy. Director set up an enquiry committee on 26.05.2016 and a proposal was submitted to the Director on 01.08.2016.

It also reveals from the record that the Director had informed that the case had already been submitted before the A.R.D. Department on 05.11.2018. The counsel for the applicant informs that on 03.11.2021 an enquiry committee consisting of three members visited the residence of the applicant for further enquiry. Learned advocate for the applicant submits that a suitable direction be given to the respondents for early disposal of the prayer for compassionate appointment of the applicant pending with the respondents since 2016.

Learned advocate for the state submits that the proposal for compassionate appointment of the applicant is under active consideration and will be considered and disposed of within a short time.

Counsel for the respondent is requested to produce a status
