Heard learned advocates for the parties.

During hearing, a question has cropped up whether the National Skill Training Institute imparting Vocational Training and Industrial Training, including training under C.I.T.S., are wholly or partly funded by the Central Government and if partially, the quantum of such funding and whether the recommendations made by the Central Government are binding on the State Government or not. Question is whether the matter comes under the Concurrent list or the State list of the Constitution of India.

Let the matter appear under the heading "Hearing" on 14th July, 2022 to enable the learned advocates for the parties, particularly the State respondents, take to instruction to make proper submission before the Court.
