It was submitted that the applicant's husband receiving a pension from the office of the Director of Pensions, Provident Fund and Group Insurance, Purta Bhavan meant that he was not a government employee and matters pertaining to non – government employees are not the determination of this Tribunal.

Mr. P. Chakraborty, learned advocate appearing on behalf of the applicant had prayed for accommodation to check whether the applicant's husband was a government employee or not.

Today, he refers to pages 11 and 12 of this application which appears to be a PPO issued by the office of the Director of Pensions, Provident Fund and Group Insurance, Purta Bhavan, in favour of Jaga Santal / Hembram, deceased husband of the applicant.
