All the applications as item Nos. 5 to 9 and 16 to 19 of today's cause list are related to the same and identical issue, accordingly, all the applications are taken up together for consideration by passing a common order.

In the present applications, the applicants individually prayed for CAS benefits. The learned counsel for the applicants has submitted that in advance, the applications were served upon the State respondents.

In view of the submission of the learned counsel that the service of notice along with the applications has already been served upon the State respondents, further service of the copies of the applications along with annexure appears to be not necessary.

Accordingly, further compliance of Rule 11 of the West Bengal Administrative Tribunal (Procedure) Rules 1994 appears to be not necessary. Thus, further service of notice is hereby dispensed with.

However, the learned counsel for the applicants is directed to communicate the next date of the case fixed below to the State Respondents as well as Sri Soumendra Narayan Ray, learned counsel who usually appears for the State for appearance and furnish an affidavit of service separately in respect of all the applications on the next date.

Fix 25th March, 2022 for furnishing an affidavit of service in respect of earlier service of the copy of the applications along with all annexure and communication of the next date as directed above.
