In this application, Sukalyan Bose – the applicant has prayed for directing the State respondents to give him a job under the compassionate employment scheme in view of his father's death as Police Constable in North 24 Parganas. In the communication available in records, it appears that on 11th January, 2021, S.P. Krishnagar P.D. has directed I/C Nimta P.S. Barrackporte P.C. –w- DC(HQ), Barrackpore P.C. to find out and inform that the applicant - Sukalyan Bose is not eligible for compassionate employment due to the fact that at the time of the deceased employee he was a mere boy of ten years only. The other sibling Sanjit Bose, who was a major at the time death of the deceased employee has submitted his unwillingness to get such an employment. In view of this, the I/C Nimta P.S. Barrackporte P.C. –w- DC(HQ), Barrackpore P.C. has been asked to find out whether any other siblings or any other eligible dependant family member of the said deceased employee are available and eligible and willing to apply for such employment.

Learned advocate for the State respondents submits that the applicant - Sukalyan Bose, due to his being a minor at the time of death of the deceased employee, is not eligible under the existing scheme and the other sibling Sanjit Bose, having submitted his unwillingness, and no other eligible sibling or legal heir have submitted any application for such employment as was asked, so this application is not maintainable now and be disposed of.
