ORDER SHEET WEST BENGAL ADMINISTRATIVE TRIBUNAL

Present-

The Hon'ble Justice Ranjit Kumar Bag & The Hon'ble Dr. Subesh Kumar Das

Case No - CCP 105 OF 2017

SRINANDA BAISHNAB & ORS. Vs Shri Goutam Chatterjee, I.A.S., The Secretary, Irrigation & Waterways Department, Govenment of West Bengal & Ors.

Date of order.  1  Por the Applicant: Mr. Sankha Ghosh Learned Advocate  For the Contemnor /: Mr. Apurba Lal Basu Opposite Party Learned Advocate  Mr. Sankha Ghosh, Learned Counsel for the applicant submits that this contempt application went out of list by order dated December 8, 2017 on the ground that the writ application preferred by the State of West Bengal against the order of the Tribunal being W.P.S.T. No. 151 of 2017 was pending for hearing before the Hon'ble High Court. According to Mr. Ghosh, the hearing of the contempt application may proceed as no stay order has been granted by the Hon'ble High Court. Mr. Basu, Learned Counsel representing the respondents / contemnors submits that he is not aware of the present position of the case pending before the Hon'ble High Court and as such, six weeks time may be granted by the Hon'ble High Court or any action has been initiated by the respondents / contemnors for compliance of the order passed by the Tribunal.	th date Learned Advocate  For the Contemnor / : Mr. Apurba Lal Basu Opposite Party  Mr. Sankha Ghosh, Learned Counsel for the applicant submits that this contempt application went out of list by order dated December 8, 2017 on the ground that the writ application preferred by the State of West Bengal against the order of the Tribunal being W.P.S.T. No. 151 of 2017 was pending for hearing before the Hon'ble High Court. According to Mr. Ghosh, the hearing of the contempt application may proceed as no stay order has been granted by the Hon'ble High Court. Mr. Basu, Learned Counsel representing the respondents / contemnors submits that he is not aware of the present position of the case pending before the Hon'ble High Court and as such, six weeks time may be granted for ascertaining whether any stay order is granted by the Hon'ble High Court or any action has been initiated by the respondents / contemnors for compliance of the order Opposite Party  Learned Advocate  Mr. Sankha Ghosh, Learned Counsel for the applicant submits that this contempt application went out of list by order dated December 8, 2017 on the ground that the writ application preferred by the State of West Bengal against the order of the Tribunal being W.P.S.T. No. 151 of 2017 was pending for hearing before the Hon'ble High Court. According to Mr. Ghosh, the hearing of the contempt application may proceed as no stay order has been granted by the Hon'ble High Court. Mr. Basu, Learned Counsel representing the respondents / contemnors submits that he is not aware of the present position of the case pending before the Hon'ble High Court and as such, six weeks time may be granted for ascertaining whether any stay order is granted by the Hon'ble High Court or any action has been initiated by the respondents / contemnors for compliance of the order applicant submits that this contempt application went out of list by order dated December 8, 2017 on the ground that the writ application preferred by the State of West Bengal against the order of the Tribunal being W.P.S.T. No. 151 of 2017 was pending for hearing before the Hon'ble High Court. According to Mr. Ghosh, the hearing of the contempt application may proceed as no stay order has been granted by the Hon'ble High Court. Mr. Basu, Learned Counsel representing the respondents / contemnors submits that he is not aware of the present position of the case pending before the Hon'ble High Court and as such, six weeks time may be granted for ascertaining whether any stay order is granted by the Hon'ble High Court or any action has been initiated by the respondents / contemnors for compliance of the order of list by order dated December 8, 2017 on the ground that the writ application preferred by the State of West Bengal against the order of the Tribunal being W.P.S.T. No. 151 of 2017 was pending for hearing before the Hon'ble High Court. According to Mr. Ghosh, the hearing of the contempt application may proceed as no stay order has been granted by the Hon'ble High Court. Mr. Basu, Learned Counsel representing the respondents / contemnors submits that he is not aware of the present position of the case pending before the Hon'ble High Court and as such, six weeks time may be granted for ascertaining whether any stay order is granted by the Hon'ble High Court or any action has been initiated by the respondents / contemnors for compliance of the order the writ application preferred by the State of West Bengal against the order of the Tribunal being W.P.S.T. No. 151 of 2017 was pending for hearing before the Hon'ble High Court. According to Mr. Ghosh, the hearing of the contempt application may proceed as no stay order has been granted by the Hon'ble High Court. Mr. Basu, Learned Counsel representing the respondents / contemnors submits that he is not aware of the present position of the case pending before the Hon'ble High Court and as such, six weeks time may be granted for ascertaining whether any stay order is granted by the Hon'ble High Court or any action has been initiated by the respondents / contemnors for compliance of the order against the order of the Tribunal being W.P.S.T. No. 151 of 2017 was pending for hearing before the Hon'ble High Court. According to Mr. Ghosh, the hearing of the contempt application may proceed as no stay order has been granted by the Hon'ble High Court. Mr. Basu, Learned Counsel representing the respondents / contemnors submits that he is not aware of the present position of the case pending before the Hon'ble High Court and as such, six weeks time may be granted for ascertaining whether any stay order is granted by the Hon'ble High Court or any action has been initiated by the respondents / contemnors for compliance of the order of 2017 was pending for hearing before the Hon'ble High Court. According to Mr. Ghosh, the hearing of the contempt application may proceed as no stay order has been granted by the Hon'ble High Court. Mr. Basu, Learned Counsel representing the respondents / contemnors submits that he is not aware of the present position of the case pending before the Hon'ble High Court and as such, six weeks time may be granted for ascertaining whether any stay order is granted by the Hon'ble High Court or any action has been initiated by the respondents / contemnors for compliance of the order Court. According to Mr. Ghosh, the hearing of the contempt application may proceed as no stay order has been granted by the Hon'ble High Court. Mr. Basu, Learned Counsel representing the respondents / contemnors submits that he is not aware of the present position of the case pending before the Hon'ble High Court and as such, six weeks time may be granted for ascertaining whether any stay order is granted by the Hon'ble High Court or any action has been initiated by the respondents / contemnors for compliance of the order contempt application may proceed as no stay order has been granted by the Hon'ble High Court. Mr. Basu, Learned Counsel representing the respondents / contemnors submits that he is not aware of the present position of the case pending before the Hon'ble High Court and as such, six weeks time may be granted for ascertaining whether any stay order is granted by the Hon'ble High Court or any action has been initiated by the respondents / contemnors for compliance of the order been granted by the Hon'ble High Court. Mr. Basu, Learned Counsel representing the respondents / contemnors submits that he is not aware of the present position of the case pending before the Hon'ble High Court and as such, six weeks time may be granted for ascertaining whether any stay order is granted by the Hon'ble High Court or any action has been initiated by the respondents / contemnors for compliance of the order Learned Counsel representing the respondents / contemnors submits that he is not aware of the present position of the case pending before the Hon'ble High Court and as such, six weeks time may be granted for ascertaining whether any stay order is granted by the Hon'ble High Court or any action has been initiated by the respondents / contemnors for compliance of the order contemnors submits that he is not aware of the present position of the case pending before the Hon'ble High Court and as such, six weeks time may be granted for ascertaining whether any stay order is granted by the Hon'ble High Court or any action has been initiated by the respondents / contemnors for compliance of the order position of the case pending before the Hon'ble High Court and as such, six weeks time may be granted for ascertaining whether any stay order is granted by the Hon'ble High Court or any action has been initiated by the respondents / contemnors for compliance of the order Court and as such, six weeks time may be granted for ascertaining whether any stay order is granted by the Hon'ble High Court or any action has been initiated by the respondents / contemnors for compliance of the order ascertaining whether any stay order is granted by the Hon'ble High Court or any action has been initiated by the respondents / contemnors for compliance of the order Hon'ble High Court or any action has been initiated by the respondents / contemnors for compliance of the order respondents / contemnors for compliance of the order passed by the Tribunal.

ORDER SHEET

Shrinanda Baishnab & Ors.

Form No.		•••
		Vs.
		Shri Goutam Ch
		Irrigation & Waterwa	The Secretary
		Govt. of West
Case No. CCP	- 105 OF 2017
	T . C.1 1	1 · · · C · · · D · · · · submission from the Bar, list
	the matter under the heading	"Hearing" on May 4, 2018.
	Let a plain copy of	the order be handed over to the order be handed over to both parties.
	(S.K. Das)	(R.K. Bag)
	MEMBER (A)	MEMBER (J)
SCN.
i				