	for the private respondents have submitted that they have no objection on addition of parties. In this background, the respondents were directed by order dated 14.11.2018 to file reply since the original application was already fixed for final hearing on 26.11.2018 but, till today no reply has been filed by any of the private respondents or the official respondents (1 to 3). However, the counsels for the private respondents have suggested that the official respondents may supply the name and address of the parties and in turn it is the duties of applicants to serve notice to others before addition of parties. The counsel for the respondent has also submitted that she has also no objection for addition of parties and also agreeable to supply the details of the parties within a period of four (04) weeks to the applicants. However, the counsels for the applicants have made objection to such proposition as they would face difficulties both practically and financially to serve notices to all the parties, who are good in numbers. Heard the parties. GM	order of this Tribunal. Therefore, the official respondent is directed to supply the details of the concerned officers so that the applicants can put them under notice and the such officers who may be directly or indirectly affected by our order be added as party respondents in the instant OA. We have made it clear that as the official respondents themselves have objected to all other modes of addition of parties and has proposed for the instant mode of service, the concerned officers, who would supply the names, should ensure that all the names and particulars of would be affected parties be supplied to the applicants by four weeks. In turn, the applicant would serve notices to the proposed added parties and file an affidavit of service along with the list of the private respondents to be added as party by three weeks thereafter. The counsels for the applicants are further granted leave to add such persons as added respondents and the counsels for the applicant is also granted leave to make appropriate amendment in the OA. Accordingly, MA is disposed of. Urgent Plain Copy. P.
