During the course of hearing, counsel for the respondent has vehemently submitted that the main issue involved in this case is whether the applicants being post 1987 appointees are entitled to be considered as similarly circumstanced with the applicants of writ petitioners as mentioned in the instant OA or not. As per the counsel for the respondent since the applicants are post 1987 appointees, they are governed by the new rule and not similarly circumstanced with the writ petitioners of the other writ petition. However, counsel for the applicant has prayed for some time to satisfy the Court in this regard. Let the matter be adjourned to 11.07.2018 as a specially fixed matter at 3.30 p.m. The counsel for the applicant has submitted that they will file supplementary application with supporting documents on the next date. DR.
