The instant application has been filed basically praying for a direction to the appellate authority to dispose of the appeal. As per the applicant, earlier he filed one OA No.1397 of 2010 before this Tribunal challenging the Disciplinary Authority's order dated 25.06.2010. However, by order dated 09.02.2016 the application was disposed of with liberty to the applicant to prefer appeal against the final order before the appropriate authority. In case the applicant prefers the appeal before the appropriate authority, the appropriate authority is also directed to condone the delay in filing the appeal because of mistake in choosing the wrong forum. Thereafter, the applicant prefers an appeal before the authority on 06.04.2016. But till date no decision has been taken by the appellate authority. Being aggrieved he has filed the instant application. None for the respondents though affidavit of service has been |                                                                            |
