|                              | contends that the system of communication of low       |   |
|                              | rating of ACR was not prevalent when the               |   |
|                              | applicant was in service.                              |   |
|                              | In the above circumstances, we are of the              |   |
|                              | view that the applicant should have been given the     |   |
|                              | opportunity to submit representation against low       |   |
|                              | rating of ACR, particularly when the applicant has     |   |
