Roy, learned advocate for the applicant, let Superintending Engineer, Eastern Circle, Irrigation and Waterways Directorate, Kolkata be added as a party respondent by amending the cause title of the application. Since Mr. S. Ghosh, learned advocate for the state respondent accepts service on behalf of the added respondent, no further copy of application be served on the added respondent. Facts as stated in this application are that the applicant was selected in the post of Group D under Eastern Circle, Irrigation and Waterways Directorate as evident from the memo dated 23rd May, 2014 served on him. It is submitted that the selection process was under litigation. Ultimately the matter went up to before the Supreme Court which culminated in the passing of a judgement on 13th August, 2013. Mr. M.N. Roy, learned advocate, for the applicant appearing along with Mr. P. Sanyal, learned advocate, submits that though pursuant | |

| | to the memo dated 23rd May, 2014 the applicant soon thereafter had submitted the verification rolls and other documents as required, however, till date police verification has not been completed and as a result no appointment has been given. In such circumstances, the applicant on 29th August, 2016 had submitted a representation before the added respondent, which is yet to be disposed of. Mr. S. Ghosh, learned advocate for the state respondent, submits that the appointment could not be given as police verification is yet to be done and some of the documents filled up are being enquired into. Heard learned advocates for the parties. It appears from the memo dated 23rd May, 2014 that the applicant was selected in the post of Group D and along with the said memo two blank verification roll forms were issued. It appears from memo dated 12th September, 2016 issued by the Superintending Engineer, Eastern Circle addressed to the Special Superintendent of Police, Intelligence Branch , West Bengal that though verification rolls were submitted by the applicant , it is yet to be scrutinised by the police authorities.
