	of West Bengal , or to take hard copy (Offline) from them as well to allow them to participate in the ensuing selection process for recruitment to the said post in-question along with others by condoning their age bar . Mr. S. Ghosh, Ld. Advocate for the applicants submits that though the applicants have crossed the required age limit of twenty-seven years for registering themselves through online, however in view of the settled principles of law, direction may be issued allowing them to participate in the said interview after condoning the age bar. Mr. G.P. Banerjee, Ld. Advocate for the State Respondents submits that in the event the Tribunal directs allowing the applicants to appear in the selection process condoning the age bar, it may be made clear that all the applicants have to fulfil other requirements in the regulations or in the law. Having heard Ld. Advocate for the parties, since the only prayer for the applicants is to register themselves through online after condoning the upper age limit of twenty-seven years, this Original Application is disposed of by directing the Secretary, Public Service Commission West Bengal, the added respondent, to
