The counsel for the respondent has prayed for some time to take instruction with regard to the status of the Supreme Court case as well as whether the undisputed portion of the family pension can be disbursed to the applicant as her husband retired in the year 2007 and later died in the year 2017 and she is not getting any amount of family pension till date. Since the applicant is facing financial hardship, therefore, the respondent is granted four weeks time to take appropriate instruction by the next date.
