Ray, Advocates. For the State Respondents : None. In this application, the applicants have prayed for a direction upon the respondents to appoint them to the post of junior constable in West Bengal Police in the districts of Bankura, Purulia and Paschim Medinipur. It appears that the applicants had participated in the physical measurement test and physical efficiency test conducted by the Special Recruitment Board. It has been stated that the applicants had passed the tests. Thereafter they appeared in the written examination. Subsequently they were called for interview. After the examinations were over, merit list was published. According to the applicants, their names did not figure in the merit list. It has been stated that though five thousand vacancies were to be filled up and only 3471 candidates have been appointed and as about 1500 vacancies are still to be filled up, the respondents may be directed to appoint them. On a query, it is submitted by Mr. B. Banerjee, learned advocate for the applicants that the selection process is of the year 2011 as evident from
