Skg.	the applicant and Mr. S.N. Ray, learned advocate for the State respondent. The main grievance of the applicant is that the result of the selection process was not displayed properly and system of awarding marks was not in order. Perusing paragraph 10 of the reply, we find that the results were published in the website of the Police as well as of the Excise Department. From paragraph 12 of the said reply we find that the applicants Upen Mondal, under Scheduled caste category, Srimanta Das and Souvik Ghatak, both under General (Unreserved) category, had obtained 66.5,68.625 and 64.25 marks respectively, whereas the last selected candidate in the scheduled caste category had obtained 67.38 marks and in the General (Unreserved) category had obtained 69.75 marks. Therefore, it appears that the applicants had secured lesser marks in their respective categories compared to the last selected candidate and thus they were not selected, which is not disputed in the rejoinder. Hence, no order is passed on the application. The application is disposed of. (P. Ramesh Kumar) Member (A)	( Soumitra Pal) Chairman.
