	For the Principal Accountant: Mr. B. Mitra General, (A&E), Departmental Representative. West Bengal
	In this application the applicant, Rabi Dule, a seasonal employee under the Executive Engineer, Kangsabati Canals Division No.1, Amlagora, Paschim Medinipur has prayed for a direction upon the respondents to release pension and the retirement benefits. It appears from the application that the applicant, who had joined as seasonal worker, was confirmed and regularised in the post on 18 th April, 1996. The claim of the applicant is since he worked uninterruptedly during the period when he was a casual employee, the shortfall in the number of years for being entitled to pension may be condoned taking into account the period of uninterrupted service in the post of casual employee.
	It is submitted by Mrs. S. Mitra, learned advocate for the applicant that as for a long time the applicant had uninterruptedly carried out the work of casual employee and was made permanent in the post on 18 th April, 1996 and had superannuated on 31 st May, 2004, the period of uninterrupted service from April, 1996 till 31st May, 2004 may be taken into consideration for payment of pension. In this regard our attention has been drawn to the judgement of the Calcutta High Court passed on 11 th November, 2010 in W.P.S.T. No. 184 of 2010 and on 30 th April, 2014 in W.P.S.T. No. 31 of 2014.

	Mr. S.N. Ray, learned advocate for the respondents submits that the facts in W.P.S.T. No. 184 of 2010 and W.P.S.T. No. 31 of 2014 are not similar to the facts in the application.
	Mr. B. Mitra, the Departmental Representative of the Principal Accountant General, ((A&E), West Bengal supports the stand taken by Mr. S.N. Ray.
	Heard learned advocates for the parties. It is not clear from the copies of documents annexed to this application that the applicant had worked uninterruptedly from April, 1996 till May, 2004. Since this, in our view, is a question of fact, considering the facts and circumstances of the case, we dispose of this application by granting liberty to the applicant to file a representation annexing documents in support of his contention before the Director
