Bengal.

During the course of the hearing, Counsel for the applicant has submitted that it would suffice the purpose if the District Inspector of Schools would be directed to make payment as per the letter dated 06.02.2015 along with interest for delay in payment.

The Counsel for the respondents has no objection except interest portion.

Heard the parties and peruse the record. The applicant had retired on 31.05.2014, but till date she has not been paid the Group-D portion of her GPF amount though in the year 2015, Senior Accounts Officer of AG (A&E), West Bengal had already communicated their decision for making payment by the respondent no. 3 of her Group-D portion of GPF amount. Thereafter also some communication was made. However, no steps have been taken for making payment of that portion of GPF amount.

In view of the above, the District Inspector of Schools, respondent no. 3 is directed to make payment of Group-D portion of GPF amount along with interest on delayed payment till date of making payment from the
