Skg.	Since in our view, it is the prerogative of the Government either to prepare and publish the entire panel or a part of it and as the question put to the applicant has not been answered, in our view, no order can be passed on the application. Therefore, no order is passed on this application. The application is disposed of. After order is passed, Mr. Chatterjee submits that since the result is yet to be published, the candidature of his client may be directed to be considered by the respondents. So far this prayer is concerned, we hope and trust that the State authorities will consider the candidature of the applicant in accordance with the norms. (P.
