	at all a speaking order and, hence, cannot be sustained. Moreover, the same issue is covered by the judgement dated 3rd January, 2017 passed in the Original Application No. 346 of 2015 - Dr. Ashok Kumar Maiti and Others vs. The State of West Bengal and Ors. Mr. S. Ghosh, learned advocate appearing on behalf of the State respondents submits that the impugned order is just and proper and if directed the respondents shall reconsider the matter. We find that the impugned order contained in the memo dated 24th January, 2017 rejecting the application for voluntary retirement does not give any reason for rejecting the application for voluntary retirement. It merely refers to Sub-Rule (75aaaa) of WBSR Part-I which according to the applicant is not applicable to him. Moreover, the order is cryptic. Hence the impugned order cannot be sustained and is set aside and quashed. The application is thus allowed. Therefore, considering the facts and circumstances of the case, as we find that the issue is covered by the judgement passed in the Original Application No. 346 of 2015 (Dr. Ashok Kumar Maiti and Others vs. The State of West Bengal and Ors.), the matter is disposed of by directing the Additional Chief Secretary,
