Banerjee, Advocates. For the State Respondent : Mr.S. K. Mondal, Advocate. The instant application has been filed mainly challenging the enquiry report dated 11-12-2007 whereby the committee did not recommend her case on two grounds i.e. (1) The mother of the applicant was also government employee. (2) Though the applicant was unmarried at the time of death of the deceased employee, however thereafter she got married. Therefore her case was not found fit for recommendation as she cannot be treated as dependent of the deceased employee. Though the respondent have not filed

	any reply. However the Counsel for the respondent has submitted that since both the facts are not been controverted by the applicant. Therefore in view of such fact, the Enquiry Committee has rightly rejected the claim of the applicant. Heard both the parties and perused the records. It is an admitted fact that the wife of the deceased employee was a government employee. Further it is a settle principle of law that the purpose of compassionate appointment is to grant relief to overcome the sudden financial crisis arose due to the sudden death of sole bread earner. As the mother of the applicant was also government employee and the applicant subsequently got married, therefore the Enquiry Committee has rightly observed that there is no financial crisis for grant of any compassionate appointment. Therefore we do not find any reason to interfere with the Enquiry Committee report.
